Bruce A. Rukkila, CPA, PC, a full-service public accounting firm located in downtown Houghton, welcomes Peter A. Negro, CPA, as Tax Manager of the firm. Pete graduated from Northern Michigan University with a degree in Business Administration, and passed the CPA exam in 1989. Pete has over 20 years experience and a proven track record in both public and private accounting. Most recently, Pete was Vice President/Controller for Pettibone/Traverse Lift, a manufacturer of construction equipment, located in Baraga, Michigan.

Pete will be responsible for overseeing all tax services of the firm, which include planning, preparation, research, compliance, and consulting for both individual and business clients. He will be leading a team of tax staff and will be responsible for on-going training and development, with the ultimate goal of assuring that client expectations are met and that value-added opportunities are identified and provided for all clients. Pete will be an integral part of the Firm's management team, assisting in all administrative functions pertaining to the tax department.

Pete and his wife Amy, children Max and Ellie, and foreign exchange student Tryg, reside in Houghton.
